Cuenca, June 18th, 2025 - Conecta FICCIÓN & ENTERTAINMENT 2025 Awards Gala was held this afternoon in the Teatro Auditorio José Luis Perales, where the winners of the various awards given to the projects participating in the five pitching categories organised for this year's edition were announced: Copro Series (scripted series and mini-series); Direct to Streaming Movies (movie projects designed for direct release on streaming platforms); Music Series (series where music plays a fundamental role); Docudrama Series (dramatized documentary series); and Innova Formats (interactive entertainment formats). The awards also recognised some of the six projects selected as part of the Fundación SGAE's 12th Laboratory for the Creation of Television Series, which held its own pitch session at midday today.

The ceremony, hosted by the tv presenter Ana Isabel Albares together with the event's director Géraldine Gonard, was preceded by a special session dedicated to 'La Caza. Irati', the fourth season of the saga produced by DLO Producciones, which won over viewers and was adapted with great success in France under the title 'Rivière-Perdue'. This new instalment will be shown for the first time on Movistar Plus+ in 2025. Its producer José Manuel Lorenzo, president and founder of DLO Producciones, the creator Agustín Martínez and the leading actors Silvia Alonso and Félix Gómez, have revealed the details of this psychological thriller set in the Irati Forest (Navarra) as a new scenario. The panel was moderated by Irene Jiménez, editor of the Spanish trade media Audiovisual451.
